

Submit News

COURTNEY BRETT '07 APLA ALUMN , RECOGNIZED BY THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS

Courtney Brett, a 2007 graduate of the School of Architecture, Planning and Landscape Architecture, was recognized as the AIA's youngest active member by the American Institute of Architects this year. Beginning her college career at Auburn when she was just sixteen, Brett was recruited by Skidmore, Owings & Merrill in New York at the conclusion of her Auburn degree. Currently Brett is involved with her own firm, Casburn Brett Architecture, in Daphne, Alabama.

Program: Architecture |

Related Topics: Student Accolades |

Re-skinning Dudley

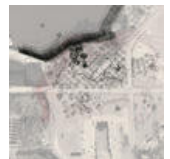

Search

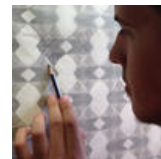

FEATURED GALLERIES

ARIA Summer Thesis

MLA Thesis Spotlight

Summer Design Option

FEATURED PUBLICATIONS

Reinventing Pratt:
Urbanism In a New
Key

Space Unveiled

EVENTS USING VIEWS

Nov 22nd, 2014 08:00 pm to 11:00 pm
ASLA Alumni Event

Oct 31st, 2014 09:00 am to 09:00 pm
26th Annual Pumpkin Carve

Oct 27th, 2014 03:30 pm to 05:00 pm
Architecture Fall Lecture Series - Marshall Brown

Oct 13th, 2014 03:30 pm to 05:00 pm
Architecture Fall Lecture Series -
Carie Penabad

Sitemap | Contact | Press Center | Join Mailing List | RSS Feed

© 2014 | School of Architecture, Planning and Landscape Architecture | College of Architecture, Design and Construction | Auburn University

Admin Login